Whereas, David Malmo was one of only sixty-four dealers nominated for the thirty-fourth annual Quality Dealer Award from a broad field that included more than nineteen thousand possible contenders; and

Whereas, the top choice of Missouri's five hundred fifty new car dealers, David Malmo was encouraged as a youth to enter the medical profession, as did his stepfather, an internationally famous psychologist, and his mother, a Registered Nurse, but instead entered business studies after two years in pre-dentistry; and

Whereas, the allure of an uncle's red convertible and a love of people brought David Malmo into the automotive industry, first as a district manager for General Motors, then as a minority partner in a GM-Rambler dealership in Nevada, Missouri, and finally as the owner of his own business in Sedalia; and

Whereas, David Malmo is the beloved husband of Mary Alice and loving father of David and Susan, each of whom is rightfully proud of his stellar record of community involvement which has included numerous leadership positions in church and religious education, Christian social ministries, and such enterprises as United Way, CASA, Rotary, and the Missouri State Fair Commission:
